

Assistant Professor of Audiology
Tenure Track Faculty Position

The DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH PATHOLOGY AND AUDIOLOGY in the Pat Capps Covey College of Allied Health Professions at the University of South Alabama invites applications for a full-time (12 month), tenure-track appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor. Applicants with expertise in any area of Audiology and/or Hearing Science are encouraged to apply.

RESPONSIBILITIES of the position include teaching in the Doctor of Audiology degree program and in the Bachelor of Science in Speech and Hearing Sciences degree program, as well as opportunities for mentorship of students in the Doctor of Philosophy in Communication Sciences and Disorders degree program. Responsibilities also include the development and/or maintenance of significant lines of scholarly research, including conducting, publishing, and presenting peer-reviewed, data-driven research at national and international levels, and submission of competitive extramural funding applications. Further, the faculty member appointed to this position will provide service to the Department, College, University, and the profession; and will contribute positively to the overall mission and atmosphere of the Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS include an earned research doctorate (PhD) in Communication Sciences and Disorders or related field from an accredited university, ABD considered.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS include eligibility for or current state licensure from the Alabama Board of Examiners in Speech Pathology and Audiology (ABESPA) in Audiology, and eligibility for or current certificate of clinical competence in Audiology (CCC-A) from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA).

The DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH PATHOLOGY AND AUDIOLOGY at the University of South Alabama boasts 17 diverse, internationally recognized academic faculty and clinical faculty members serving students through didactic teaching, clinical practicum, and ongoing research. The Department offers four degree programs: an undergraduate degree in Speech and Hearing Sciences, Master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology, Doctor of Audiology degree, and PhD degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders. Competitive salary and interprofessional setting are offered, including onsite USA Speech and Hearing Center, serving residents of the Greater Gulf Coast community while offering supervised clinical education opportunities for students in the graduate programs. Interprofessional education opportunities for students and opportunities for collaborative research are provided through the Pat Capps Covey College of Allied Health Professions and with other units across the University community.

The UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA was founded in 1963 and is located in historic Mobile, Alabama, on the Gulf Coast, between New Orleans and the Florida panhandle. Mobile is recognized as a vibrant business, cultural, and recreational hub, close to the white sand beaches of the Gulf of Mexico. The University is a public institution with the research university/high research activity Carnegie classification, and enrolls more than 13,000 students in nine colleges and schools.

<https://www.southalabama.edu/aboutusa/>

Application review will begin October 16, 2023 and will continue until the position is filled. The desired start date is between January 1 and August 15, 2024. Please send a letter of interest, a current curriculum vitae, and the names of three professional references to Dr. Nic Stanley, Assistant Professor, Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology, University of South Alabama, 5721 USA North Drive, Mobile, AL 36688. Ph: 251.445.9368, Fax: 251.445.9376, Email: nstanley@southalabama.edu

The University of South Alabama is an EO/AA employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression), religion, age, genetic information, disability, protected veteran status or any other applicable legally protected basis.